PAUL DE GELDER

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER, HOST, CONSERVATIONIST

Improvise. Adapt. Overcome. As a marine, this Austrlian Army mantra always resonated with Paul de Gelder. In February 2009, these three words would take on a new meaning. That February 11th, Paul lost two of his limbs to a 9ft bull shark during a routine Navy drill. His life, although forever changed, was far from over. As someone who chased adventure wherever he could find it—from his wild ride as a hoodlum teen, to him hauling his way up the elite echelons of the Australian Defence Forces—he drew on everything his eventful life had taught him and left nothing to chance in his recovery. Fought through the excruciating pain, he overcame challenge after challenge. Now, Paul has travelled the world as a top motivational speaker, passionate environmentalist, adventurer and mentor to school kids. From speaking to the United Nations in New York and the US Navy in San Diego, to being a keynote speaker for multimillion dollar corporations and charity organisations around Australia and Asia, Paul is an internationally recognized speaker. Speaking candidly and humorously about overcoming adversity, embracing change and turning fears into greatest strengths, Paul motivates and inspires people to fulfill their potential.
