Who Rocked It?

Allison did!

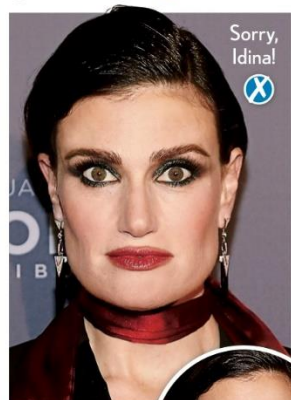

Sparkling emerald lids pop against Allison Williams' luminous complexion. Polishing the look with matching green dangles? Gorgeous!

4 January 16, 2017

Emerald shadows have been given the green light to glam up the red carpet

Celebrities are going green, and the results are stunning! "When worn around the eyes, the striking shade is so unexpected, it just wows," says celebrity makeup artist Brandy Gomez-Duplessis, who's worked with Kim Kardashian and Malin Akerman. Her key to making sure the style looks gorgeous, not garish? Opt for a light, gold-flecked green that's closer to mint (we like Buxom Eyeshadow Bar in Shimmering Emerald, $12, sephora.com). It will work well with any skin tone, plus it will bring out flecks of brown, yellow and blue in any eye color. Then finish with a soft blush and nude lips for beautiful balance.
