FELLY BEE

FASHION, BEAUTY, AND STYLE BLOG

---

HI, FELISHA!

I started blogging in June of 2015 as a way to distract myself from anxiety. My blog quickly became an amazing outlet for me and I have since expanded what I talk about with my readers. I share fashion inspiration, beauty tips, DIYs, and life experiences. I aspire to be a role model for young women and girls and to show others with anxiety that you are more than a word.

THE BLOG

So, you're thinking of working with Felly Bee but are asking yourself, "Why?"

Let me give you a bit of some background on my blog. I began blogging sometime in June of 2015. Within the first few days, I found a love for this. I became addicted to finding the best deals with fashion, beauty, and planning.

Everything continues to blossom and develop even more.

My audience is mainly 18-34 year old women, although I do have a great number of older viewers and men, as well. This being said, my average viewer is a female between the ages of 24-35.

If you want to advertise with me, I can do so many things! Collaborations, giveaways, reviews, and product features are just the frosting on the cake.

I look forward to working with you!
