These facial cloths are the perfect solution for cleaning my face before and after my workout, and they're a great space saver in my bag.

Andrea Mandel, TV Personality

Whether I am traveling, cooking or training for another marathon, these cleansing cloths are the only product I need. They've eased my need for multiple products, because they cleanse, exfoliate and remove makeup.

Elizabeth Williams, Fitness Expert

These Olay cloths are a must-have for any working girl on the run. I love that they're a dry cloth that lathers with water, so they never dry out in my car. They go everywhere with me.
