

SASSY Sally

#SASSYSALLYSBLOG

Hello! I'm Sally!

I started off as a busy bee in Dubai. I was a beauty blogger, online promoter and a social media administrator. I was there for over 4 years. I attended the hottest beauty events, was the face of several makeup and fashion brands, was on the cover of a magazine with several other magazine features. I reviewed restaurants and salons on a daily basis. I was addicted, and still am, at providing giveaways for my readers. I have now relocated to Canada, just outside of Toronto.

2018 is a brand new year, a brand design/logo/, a brand new pink office and brand new photography setup for my reviews. I accept payment for guest posts, products for review/brand ambassador positions and giveaways sponsored by brands at no cost.
