ABOUT ME

I am a 27-year old traveling lifestyle influencer with an extensive audience across all social media platforms, mainly Instagram. I have worked with many notable fashion and beauty brands as well as hotels and restaurants. I am currently based in Cincinnati, OH, and travel to my hometown San Diego, CA every summer.

MY SERVICES

I offer personalized and professionally styled posts of your brand, catered to my followers. I take high-quality, vibrantly colored images using my Canon DSLR or high-resolution iPhone camera. The sponsored product is always the main focus in both the photo and caption.

My demographic is a largely female following, mostly ages 18-34. Followers are mostly based in the US, as well as the UK, Mexico, and beyond.
