Burberry Liquid Lip Velvet in Fawn Rose, RM115

BLUSHING NUDES

The models at Burberry's Spring show last September were painted to resemble statues: matte-satin skin, softly sculpted cheekbones, bare lashes. The only noticeable makeup was either a touch of nude lipstick or a brand new liquid lip colour in the softest, prettiest pink, both now available at counters.

ON THE GLOW

The Skin Glow Collection by Bobbi Brown is all about creating radiant, healthful skin with a natural post-gym flush. The tools? Something old: Bobbi's Pot Rouge cream blush, and something new: Cheek Glow Cream Illuminators, in four compact combos for a take-anywhere glow. Topping off the look is a lip tint in two new, bright shades and a moisturiser with light-reflective pearls to catch that extra bit of gleam.

ALL HANDS ON DECK

Your hands will love these new conditioning salves. By Terry's Baume De Rose lip balm has spawned a line of moisturisers brimming with rose-derived butter, oil, wax and extracts, including a very luscious hand cream. And L'Occitane's beloved Shea Butter Hand Cream now comes in an even richer balm form with 25 per cent shea butter for severely dry skin.

CLOSET OVERACHIEVER

It's 2017 and we expect all our foundations to deliver skincare benefits, so why don't we ask the same of other products? Talika's new brow pencil-slash-serum steps up to the plate, filling in brows while encouraging their growth.
