

O N T H E Q T R A I N

My name is Peggy Jean and I am from NYC. I am a lifestyle, influencer, and style blogger. I currently run www.ontheqtrain.com. As a fashion blogger, I absolutely love dressing up and showcasing my unique sense of style to my supportive audience. My audience is very much inspired by me and always looks forward to reading my blog to get the latest styles, reviews, lookbooks, trends, and fashion updates. I have collaborated with many brands, boutiques, and smaller companies such as; Lane Bryant, Macy's, JCPenney, Boohoo, Sephora, Lori Goldstein, Simply Be, Catherine's, Fashion to Figure, Dress Barn, Dia & Co, Gwynnie Bee, Fashion Nova, and the list goes on. I am truly blessed for every opportunity that my platform has given to me.

Today, I am using my platform to advocate for change and more body/racial diversity within the plus size industry, especially for women who look like me. My goal for my brand is to change the perception of beauty, and continue to use my platform to advocate for more representation and diversity in the fashion industry. Let's work together and make it happen!
