sit-down comedian

I'm a wannabe beauty guru and women's health advocate whose internet videos have been seen by over 500 million people around the world. My video "when you suck at eyeliner" remains Time Inc.'s most viewed video ever at 60 million views, and I'm fairly certain I was the first person to make an internet video wearing a period-stained wedding dress (on purpose). I live in LA with my cat, Mister, and spend most of my free time picking out my next hair color or discussing my anxiety on Insta-stories.
