ABOUT

Long time Lower East Side resident, fashion influencer and third-wave feminist, it's no wonder Talia has taken New York and Los Angeles' vibrant songwriting scenes by storm.

When her Chinatown video salon "The Orchard Sessions" caught the attention of Blue Note Records artist José James in 2013, he invited her to write and tour for his 5th album, While You Were Sleeping, touring to over 70 cities worldwide.

Venturing to Los Angeles in 2017, she continues to expand her horizons as a songwriter, video director, creative writer, and influencer. She was Moscot's fall campaign of 2016, is on Yamaha and Ableton's artist roster, and is a featured ambassador of DevaCurl.
