

Bisous Marie-Lou

FASHION - LIFESTYLE - HEALTH - BEAUTY - & MORE

Marie-Lou Duveillier

About the blog

The blog began in 2015 as a personal lifestyle page. Soon, Marie-Lou's amount of followers on Instagram increased significantly and she realised that her own lifestyle was ridiculous enough to give lifestyle blogging a proper shot.

Today the blog is viewed across the world: mostly in both Belgium and UK, where she studies fashion styling and works freelance for ELLE Magazine UK in London.

Marie-Lou has been told that people follow her page owing to her 'enviable lifestyle', her recommendations on topics like traveling, life in London and Paris, places to go to, beauty tips and tricks and of course: fashion!

That way she is about to start up her own blog in 2017 called 'Bisous Marie-Lou'.
