ABOUT ME

I'm a Cuban raised in Texas, I love to embrace my roots and my southern hospitality and that's what makes me special! I've been married to my high school sweetheart for the last 10 years and together we have a precious baby girl who's our world and another one on the way! I'm a lover of all things yellow and spending time with my family. I'm a homebody who is perfectly happy with my bible in hand and a coffee in the other.
