TESTIMONIALS

"I receive Stacy's "blogozine", StacyKnows, regularly. The hard work and time that go into it are obvious. Stacy is chock full of information that she divulges purely for the benefit of others. Whether you're looking for a restaurant recommendation or a simple recipe, the latest in fashion or just pure comfort, the hottest music, the best show, how to save a buck on just about anything and what deserving charity really could use that buck that you saved; Stacy seems to provide it all. There is something for almost everyone in every issue. Subscribe to her "blogozine" for information, for recommendations or just for the fun of it. It's all there." – Fred DeVito
