ABOUT ME

I am a home decor and design enthusiast who isn't afraid to roll up her sleeves and attempt a DIY, both big and small. I am currently in the process of renovating our second family home one room at a time. I create content for my website and Instagram to inspire a beautiful, functional, and organized home.

I am open to brand partnerships, collaborations, and ambassador opportunities. I am committed to creating engaging content that stands out with its high quality photography and bright aesthetic.
