About Carly + CarlyDaily.com

Style, travel, and life seen with awoken eyes, just a modern girl in a mystical world topped with a big glass of rosé! I'm a Kelowna, BC native and enjoy sharing my life in alignment with my followers! In my free time I enjoy spending it with my fur baby, Lacie and reading my favorite books. I have a keen eye for design and detail that is evident in my brand. I decided to start blogging in July of 2016 as a way to share my passions, and inspirations with like-minded ladies (and gentlemen!) I'm passionate about working with brands and businesses to personally craft beautiful, visually engaging moments. My love is in front of the camera, both photo and video.

Since the creation of CarlyDaily.com it has become a hub for all content covering fashion, beauty, food, lifestyle, décor and DIY based posts. A one-stop shop for today's awakened woman (and gentlemen.)
