ABOUT

Jennifer has been blogging since 2012, but made it a full time focus in 2016. In 2017 she launched her first cookbook, Living Freely Gluten Free. The blog has grown tremendously over the past year. Living Freely Gluten Free was voted one of the Top 20 Gluten Free Blogs in 2017 and one of the Top 75 Gluten Free YouTube channels. Her focus is bringing the gluten free community delicious and practical recipes that you can implement into everyday life. Living Freely Gluten Free is also expanding into the lifestyle category focusing on living with food allergies, beauty, skin care, household products and travel.

Jennifer also did a cooking segment in December of 2017 on the Pacific Northwest's only talk show, Good Day Northwest.
