hello@chenoaann.com

Hello there! I'm Chenoa, pronounced Shu-No-Uh. I am deeply passionate about living a plant-based lifestyle and traveling with my family. When I'm not chasing our toddler around, you can find me planning our next adventure or creating yummy vegan meals and sharing these things with my audience. The process of content creation is incredibly fulfilling for me, and finding brands that align with the things I love is when the magic truly happens! If you are looking for beautiful photography and clearly conveyed musings regarding your brand as well as your specific vision, then I am your girl! Let's create something amazing!
