

Audiologist | Speech Pathologist | Autism
Advocate | Catalyst for Change Author |
Motivational Speaker | Coach | Zachary's Mom

Dr. Alisha Griffith has been a compassionate professionally trained educator, speech language pathologist and audiologist for nearly two decades. She has worked in schools, homes, offices and in her own practice connecting those with speech and hearing difficulties. Through her work Dr. Alisha has helped many BELIEVE in themselves and SHIFT their self-talk. Although her clients were dealing with differently-abled, their confidence levels were no different from others.

In 2015, Dr. Alisha launched her coaching and speaking practice applying her passion and willingness to serve others. She is a catalyst for change and a great connector. Dr. Alisha is the igniter of positive energy. Dr. Alisha has created a movement to shift inner dialogues from negative to gratitude and appreciation through the power of listening and speaking ones truth. She believes in remaining focused and weathering through storms of life with a positive mindset are our KEYS to success.

Reviews

"Dr. Ali is one of the most reliable, resilient, determined women professionals and entrepreneurs. She is one of those individuals that her word is her bond and she is literally the person that is at the top of my list to come through for anything. So, if you're looking for someone to help you deliver results, have a powerful impact, and serve people to a whole new level, Dr. Ali is your girl."

Lisa Nichols, Motivational Speaker, Coach and Mentor

"I was very fortunate to have someone who was such an expert on my son's team when he was most vulnerable. She was great with my son but most importantly she taught me how to help and understand my son. Her patience, caring and how she connected with my son was a special thing to watch during her treatment sessions. I honestly believe if it wasn't for a good start, (which Dr. Alisha played a vital part in) my son would be a very different child. My family is very grateful that God brought Dr. Alisha Griffith into our lives."

MM, Autism Mom

"I am glad I followed her professional advice because I see exactly what she has said coming to pass-- he is achieving his milestones, just at a different time. I am thankful to Dr. Griffith and for her professional expertise. She says in her book to, "Listen to that voice inside of you" and I am glad I did. Thank you."
