

LIGHTS CAMERA FASHION!

Juliet Wheeler

Style&Glamour is a two year old fashion and beauty blog that takes my audience through my journey of self discovery, embracing change and finding that balance between career, motherhood and family in a foreign country.

I use my sense of style, humour and personal experience to encourage and uplift the young women who follow me.

My main objective is to inspire, motivate and provide a platform that gives my audience a can do attitude in following their dreams no matter the obstacles.

I am a mother of two, and my family is my biggest motivation in all I do.
