INSTAGRAM AND YOUTUBE BLOGGER

I'm not an ordinary travel blogger. I'm photographer who travels around the USA and tells about the most amazing place. My goal is to show something new, what people may not seen, didn't know. I show them real life in United States, places, food, nature, fashion, beauty. That's why this isn't just lifestyle blog, it's kind of educational blog "How to live abroad and travel around". In my blog I share tips about English, traveling in USA, how to have clean skin, lifehacks and fashion. Like photographer I know how introduce fashion in urban photo or nature.
