

Goddess

www.goddess.co.za

Goddess blog is an inspiring blog that documented an infertility journey but grew into a place for the women that juggles and wants it all.

Susann now shares stories about her travels, life, parenthood, beauty and everything in-between. She also writes about her journey as an entrepreneur (and writer) that loves to not be tied to a desk.

She is mom to a two girls, one a toddler and the other still a baby, a couple of crazy felines and wife to an Irishman that doesn't want to move back home because the sunshine rocks so much at the tip of Africa.
