

DALLION KING

ABOUT ME

I am an overseas pro basketball player and model. I am based in Los Angeles, CA but travel a lot to New York, Miami, and New Jersey. My social media presence is based around my training, my choice in fashion, and rants inspired by social issues and everyday life. My brand branched from my basketball nickname 'Mr.Moves' which I used to create merchandise for my followers, create challenges, and collaborate with companies and other influencers.
