ABOUT ELEGANTLYELLERY

Hi, I am Ellery, creator of ElegantlyEllery blog. I started my page in March of 2019 and focus on fashion and beauty for the average size woman. My aim is to help every day women find fashion that fits their body type and their budget. Over the last 2 years, my blog has involved to include lifestyle and travel as well.

I have collaborated with several different brands and businesses so far such as boutiques, hair salons, restaurants, vacation rental properties, and even large retail brands. I am looking to continue to collaborate and build a network with other amazing brands in the future.
