THE ROOTS

I am a young mom to Irish Twins who just recently turned 1 and 2 years old. I am a full time stay at home mom. I just recently graduated with a Bachelors Degree in December 2018. I created my blog because I love to share my favorite finds with my friends and because I needed a creative outlet!

My niche is fashion, motherhood and Lifestlye blogging. I love my small community because it allows me to use my interpersonal skills and create a personal relationship with them!
