ABOUT ME

My name is Dayelis and I am a stay at home mother of 2 kids and 1 fur baby. I have a passion for home decor that I love to share with my audience. I have my own amazon store front and I am an influencer on the LIKEtoKNOW.it app. I absolutely love sharing any new products that I use in my home especially if it makes my followers decision on purchasing a product any easier. I created this account 7 months ago and I never thought it would grow as fast as it has. I have a very interested audience that constantly asks me about everything I use in my home, from home decor to any kind of furniture, mattress, etc.....I also love sharing ideas on how to style, display, or use any kind of products.
