Blogger, Content Creator, Influencer

About

Jaclyn, founder of MyRestingBeachFace, is a Luxury Travel Blogger, Content Creator, Story Teller, and Influencer.

She is an experience lover with a wanderlust soul, who is overly passionate about travel, sharing her finds with her followers, and inspiring others to see the world while living their best life.

She is a connoisseur of champagne and beverages and loves to try new drink recipes. She loves to cook, try new restaurants, and lounges, while experiencing life to the fullest.

She loves all things tropical, especially pineapples and fresh coconuts. She enjoys a healthy lifestyle, anything that is good for the mind, the soul, and the heart.

She has a passion for anything personalized and especially inspiring you to see the opulent road less traveled.

While she is relatively new to the blogger, influencer, and content creator atmosphere, she has managed to organically grow an engaged audience by being true to herself and authentic with her following.

Inspiring you: the Opulent Road less Traveled

Forever a beach lover and a sunset chaser
