BRAND PARTNERS

I love showcasing new and existing products that simplify the routines of motherhood and make keeping up a home easier for families with young children. Items that add value to our everyday routine are quintessential, as long-lasting partnerships that build trust with my followers over time is very important to me. Past partners include: Rugs USA, Beddy's, Lily and River, Edoki Academy, Cuddle and Kind, Plant Therapy and more. Have an idea in mind? I have a background in design and would love to brainstorm new promotions or ways of working together!
