My name is Kyle Fuller also known as VCY on both TikTok and Instagram. I am a 17-year-old high school entrepreneur living in Las Vegas NV. During the pandemic like any other kid, I went onto social media and started making videos to pass the time. Through some good fortune I have been able to produce content that many people enjoy, and I began getting an extremely high number of followers. I look forward to working with other influencers and companies that would like to collaborate on business ventures for the foreseeable future.

My content primarily focuses on Anime and comedy. I am very flexible and can promote most items. However, I am not greedy and simply promote all things thrown my way. I like to work with companies that I have an interest in and feel that would benefit greatly from my services.

In the very near future, I plan to begin getting more into gaming as well. I will begin producing gaming videos and doing content for gaming. I also am looking to expand to other platforms very soon to include YouTube, YouTube Shorts, and Twitch.
