ABOUT ILYA SAROSSY

Ilya Sarossy is a 23 year old filmmaker, photographer and model who delivers creative and entertaining results using brand identity, creativity and social media. She has worked in the film industry for over 5 years, created and ran a collective of over 50 artists in Toronto, was the artistic director for the Hart House Film Board, and founded local production company Bad Flower Pictures to promote female focused media across Canada. She now works with brands and businesses specializing in advertorial videography and photography, resulting in creative content as well as editorial and advertorial work. Some brands she has partnered with include LOHN, TIJN, Toronto Tans, Clean Beauty and more.

She also shoots for numerous publications, such as Archive the Mag, Gezno Magazine, Gripped Magazine, Flanelle Magazine & Toksik Magazine.

Her focus is to utilize social media as a tool to showcase her favourite brands and partners through her colourful, versatile work to her followers and to create colourful stories and narratives focused on fashion, beauty, travel, adventure, culture, sports and lifestyle.
