Mik is an autistic, queer content creator. They try to be a disability and autism advocate. They know how difficult it can be, being undiagnosed or just diagnosed. Therefore, they are trying to make it a bit easier with their content.

about me

Mik (They/Them) is an autism advocate, content creator, and business owner of Phoenixxllustrations from the Netherlands. They are mostly active on Instagram and have a YouTube channel where they share their own experiences as a late-diagnosed autistic person. They are living in a van with their partner, and they're going to travel soon!
