DEMOGRAPHICS

Hi! My name is Miles. When I'm not studying politics and public administration, I am avidly researching skincare regimens and staying abreast of men's fashion. Via Tik Tok, I gained the unique opportunity to tap into a niche skincare audience- MEN! (and others who seriously want their sons or husbands to elevate their self-care).

I've always been a product-junkie but failed to use my passion for storytelling to share my wisdom with those who need it most. Let's face it, most men fall short in the hygiene/skincare department. If you are reading this it is because I have already researched the quality of your products and would be confident in recommending them to an audience whose trust I have worked hard to garner.

Together we can increase your brand's reach while improving the skincare and lifestyle habits of men across the US!
