

Nomadic Stefi

Travel & Lifestyle Content Creator

ABOUT

Hi, I'm Stefi, the content creator behind Nomadic Stefi. It's so nice to virtually meet you!

My niche is Travel and Lifestyle, targeting mostly young women between 25-34, who make up 56% of my audience.

I lead a very full life, traveling to different destinations every month and trying new experiences that I share daily with my followers.

I'm looking forward to working with brands with which we mutually fit in goals, values, spirit and dynamics. I like to transmit the reality of my life whether through experiences, stays, routines, places or products, and make my audience connect with it.

I want them to be left with an impression that they will not forget, and with the need to experience it for themselves.

I'm a very creative and passionate person, and I would love to transmit that passion for the brand to my followers, so that way they can get to know us better, and add us to their lives. Creating a positive influence on them.
