About me

My name is Elizabeth, also known as theElizaMouse on my platforms! I am a wife and mom, and a Disney content creator. I am known for promoting my favorite Disney brands, both for baby and me, and posting family content to connect with my audience on a deeper level.

I have experience as a affiliate for a major brand, AliExpress. I did a "Disney Dupes" series with them that alone has 90K views, and recently am partnering with Stella's Baby.
