

The Tiny Canal Cottage

"Whitney's eye for detail and her spirit of beauty creates a space that fills the visitor with warmth and welcome. I am deeply envious of her ability to curate aesthetically and tactically satisfying environments. I have tried to emulate this but trust me it is a rare talent. She is a rare talent." - AMY ADAMS, Actor & Exec Producer

ABOUT WHITNEY

Whitney Leigh Morris is a Small Space Lifestyle Consultant, blogger and author. A firm believer that you don't need to "live large" to live beautifully, Morris uses her channels to share tips and ideas geared towards helping individuals, couples, and families live comfortably and contentedly in — and with — a smaller footprint. The intention behind her work is to embolden a collective shift away from the "bigger is better" mentality that contributes to hyper-consumerism, allowing us clearer access to a greener and more equal path forward. Morris also shares her expertise via a diverse array of news and editorial outlets, speaking engagements, workshops, video appearances, and her book: Small Space Style: Because You Don't Need to Live Large to Live Beautifully. Whitney is on the board of The RightWay Foundation, an LA-based non-profit.

THE FAMILY

Whitney & Adam (married), 2 children (5 y.o. & infant), 2 rescue beagles
