

About Me

I've been a public figure for 5 years and content creator since the start of 2022. My content is focused on fashion and makeup. My largest platform for posting content is Instagram and my priority platform for live interaction is TikTok.

I am passionate about women's empowerment and inclusivity. I am outspoken about these things as they've played a major role in my decision to do social media full time and focus on self-improvement.

Stats

I enjoy creating makeup and outfit transition reels. My Instagram stories and TikTok lives are extremely interactive as I answer questions and talk about products I use.
